Data Protection Statement:

We collect and use your information to send you our newsletter and other communications regarding our activities, to provide appropriate pastoral care and to fulfil our purposes as a church and to comply with the law regarding data sharing, safeguarding etc. We do not share your information with others except as described in our Privacy Notice, a copy of which can be found on our website: kingschurcheden.co.uk/privacy notice and on the Church notice board. In providing the above information you are giving consent to us to use it in accordance with our Privacy Notice.

Consent to sharing contact details with other members of King's Church Eden

King's Church Eden is a family enjoying and sharing the goodness of God and to facilitate us being family together we would like to make it easy for people to stay in touch with one another. We have a password protected members' only portal on our website where we would like to make the contact details you have given above available to the other members of our church family. This information will only be shared with members of our church family for the purposes of being the body of Christ. To ensure the integrity and security of the data provided, everyone who requests a password to login into the members' portal agrees to take all reasonable steps to keep the personal information of all members secure and not to share the information with anyone outside of the church body without that person's consent, in accordance with the Information Security Agreement set out overleaf

Please confirm that you agree to the contact details you have supplied above being made available on the members' portal by placing a tick in the box provided above. If you do not wish to give consent your data will only be used for the purposes set out in our Privacy Statement.
